SUPERVISION POLICY OF POSTGRADUATE CANDIDATES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MALAYA

1. Purpose

This policy was created with the following objectives:

(1) To explain the criteria for the appointment of the supervisor and the role and responsibilities of the supervisor to the candidate in the research mode and the coursework and research modes.

(2) To assist the Responsibility Centre (RC) in making plans for the infrastructure, the workload of the academic staff and intake of candidates.

(3) To ensure the quality of supervision is assured and that the research produced by the candidate is consistent with the mission and vision of the University.

(4) As a guide for academic staff and candidates in the University of Malaya in executing the responsibilities as a supervisor and research candidate.

2. Appointment of Supervisor

The appointment of a supervisor must meet the following criteria:

(1) It is encouraged to appoint at least two (2) supervisors for each candidate. If only one supervisor is appointed, the supervisor must have the experience of supervising until graduation at least two (2) candidates.

(2) The appointed supervisor must have a minimum qualification equivalent to the degree or at par with the program registered by the candidate.

(3) If the supervisor does not have the qualification stated, experience in the research field or related industry can be considered as the criteria for appointment as a Supervisor.

(4) The appointment of a Supervisor shall take into account the research skills and experiences which are consistent with the research field of the candidate.
(5) Supervisors suggested by prospective candidates, are given priority to supervise, except in cases where the RC feels that other supervisors are more qualified to supervise.

(6) Academic staff on sabbatical leave may be allowed to supervise until the end of the leave, provided the leave does not affect the candidate’s supervision. However, based on some specific reasons, the Supervisor may apply to not supervise the candidate while on leave and the decision is based on the discretion of the relevant RC.

(7) For academic staff who will be coming to the end of their services, the RC should ensure that a replacement supervisor is appointed at least six (6) months prior to the end of the service date of the initial supervisor so that both of them can co-supervise without affecting the progress of the candidate’s research.

(8) For academic staff who have left the service in University of Malaya but is still doing academic work elsewhere, they may be appointed as co-supervisor and the number of candidates supervised shall be limited to five (5) persons, where the candidates must be in their final stage of their studies.

(9) Appointment of an external party (either academic or non-academic) as co-supervisors can be considered if the external party is able to provide research facilities and the expertise which will in turn assist the candidates in their research.

(10) Academic staff should attend training programs in supervision or enhancement courses prescribed by the University of Malaya.

(11) If the RC would like to appoint a supervisor who is not in compliance with all the criteria of appointment specified in the policy, the RC shall submit a letter of application together with a strong justification to the Dean of Graduate Studies Institute of Graduate Studies for consideration and approval.

(12) Appointment of supervisors shall be managed by the RC in compliance with all the criteria specified in this policy. Appointment made shall take into account the space, resources and expertise to support and assist candidates, with their research.

(13) If the appointment of a new supervisor is required for some reason, the appointment shall be made according to merit and this case is considered as a special case. This case cannot be referred to and be an example or a precedent for a case to come.
In the event of problems of supervision between supervisor and candidate, the RC should address this problem. If the problem cannot be resolved, the matter may be submitted to the Dean, Institute of Graduate Studies for further action.
